At The Cross

Hallelujah!

Matthew Fallentine & Glenn Packiam/arr. Ross.

“There’s a place for heavy souls, where grace abounds and healing flows, and the lost are welcomed home. At the cross.” This ballad-style setting is a musical reminder of the grace that is waiting for us at the cross. All we need to do is seek the healing love of the Savior.

It's All Because Of Jesus

The Real Story of Easter, and Why It Matters

Gina Boe, Brian Green & Sue C. Smith.

Join our lead character, Annie, on a remarkable adventure as a kid who happens to be watching a DVD at home about the true story of Easter. Suddenly, Annie finds herself inside the video, meeting and talking with several Bible characters whose lives were impacted by their encounters with Jesus. Annie talks with Gideon, Ruth, Johnathan, Sarah, and Rufus about their miraculous experiences with Jesus and how He changed their lives. As Annie learns more about the amazing true story of Easter, she realizes that Easter is just as important today as it was 2,000 years ago! Your Kids Choir will learn and share the truth that Jesus came and lived and died, and then He rose again. When we believe that, and when we give our lives to follow Him, it changes everything! with an optional simplified speaker script making this both flexible and fun!

Risen Redemption

A Modern Worship Easter Celebration!

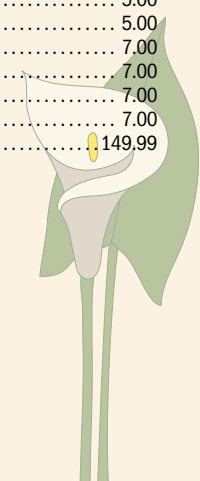

Michael Neale & Harold Ross.

Here is a 24-minute modern worship celebration for Easter, combines the freshness of new worship songs written by Michael Neale with the familiarity of contemporary arrangements of timeless classics. Use it as a worship set to lead into your pastor's powerful Easter Sunday sermon, or use the songs one at a time all through the Lent and Passion season. With songs recorded by artists such as Michael W. Smith, Natalie Grant, Rebecca St. James, Todd Agnew and Phillips, Craig, and Dean to name a few, and with several best-selling worship choir projects already under his belt, Michael Neale continues to spend his time leading worship in churches, songwriting and being a featured leader and teacher at conferences around the country. With a passion to both resource and encourage, Michael has written these songs with relevance and purpose in mind for the modern worship choir.

It's Easter!

An Easy-to-stage Kids' Musical about God's Love and Grace

ed. Cherry Garasi.

Centered around the good news of God's love and grace, shown to us through Christ's death and resurrection, It's Easter! is an easy to sing and stage musical designed to be used in a variety of ways throughout the Lenten season through Easter Sunday. Three hymns arranged by Steven B. Taylor especially for children (When I Survey the Wondrous Cross; Nothing but the Blood and Amazing Grace) tell the story of Christ's sacrifice for us and can be sung by any children's choir or group on the Sundays leading up to Easter. The title song, written by Pam Andrews, provides the perfect children's contribution to any Easter service celebration. Or, the entire musical can be presented in a 15 minute presentation on Easter. Scripture verses offered in a reader's theatre style provide a simple, but clear and effective means of pulling together these wonderful songs. It is sure to be appreciated by congregations and the children alike. Celebrate! It's Easter!

Jesus Is Alive!

Daniel Samsen.

The same news that rocked the disciples' world centuries ago will rock your world this Easter! Jesus Is Alive is the exciting new worship service package that will have your entire congregation overflowing with praise. This joyful celebration kicks off with the traditional Charles Wesley hymn "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today", enhanced with a new melody and lyrics by Daniel and Christy Samsen, and moves directly into the celebratory and high energy exclamation "Jesus Is Alive." The moving and emotional "All To Us" reaffirms the place Jesus holds in our lives, and ends with the powerful "Jesus Saves", by contemporary songwriters David Moffitt and Travis Cottrell. Jesus Is Alive is brilliantly arranged and orchestrated by Daniel Samsen, and includes a DVD to aide in congregational participation. With a running time of just under 20 minutes, it is the perfect length for your Easter Sunday celebration. Rejoice in the good news that Jesus Is Alive!

Remember:

Where the Past Ends and Forever Begins

Jay Rouse, Randy Vader, Rose Aspinall & Camp Kirkland.

Remember. As commanded, the Israelites have retold the story of the faithfulness of their God for centuries. They have recounted how the blood of the Lamb protected them from the angel of death. The world is on the brink of eternal change now, because it is Jesus, the Christ who is saying "remember." Remember the things I taught you, remember the trials and the triumphs, remember the promises and the prayers, remember the bread and the wine. God will reclaim his people and it will be forever inscribed on their hearts, sealed by the Master, in His own blood. Remember. Once you encounter the Master, how could you ever forget? No Stone Could Hold Him

A Dynamic Witness to the Living Rock of Our Salvation

Lloyd Larson.

No Stone Could Hold Him is a spirited witness to the ministry, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus, the Rock of our Salvation. Written by celebrated composer Lloyd Larson, this powerful work is filled with scripture-based images of Jesus as “A Rock in a Weary Land,” even when tempted by Satan to “turn these stones to food;” as the Solid Rock on which we stand through “Winds of Change” and “Shifting Sand;” as Jerusalem’s triumphant King who commands the rocks to keep silent; as the Cornerstone of our faith, betrayed and crucified; and as the risen Savior whom no stone could hold in the tomb. Inspired by these images, the music is bold and enlivening with rousing original music alongside energetic spirituals and gospel songs. This dramatic work is an exceptional choice for Easter worship, with its seven choruses and options for duets and solos. It can also be performed during the Lenten season or Holy Week by omitting the final chorus.

The Way Of The Cross Leads Home

Following the Path of Salvation Through Hymns

Mary McDonald.

Here is a powerful affirmation of our faith: that the path to everlasting life is found in Christ’s journey to the cross. The music reflects Mary’s deep roots in Christian hymnody and her belief that “hymns constitute our Christian heritage and provide a rich reservoir of spiritual guidance. It is through the singing of these great songs that we restate the purpose of our belief and the hope of our existence. The spiritual nourishment of these well-known texts supplies us with the reassurance that the Bible is true and God is real.” The inspired combination of traditional hymn tunes and Mary’s original melodies creates a seamless flow as the words of the hymns partner with the narrative to tell the story. Along the way, both performer and listener will pause to reflect upon and experience those events of 2,000 years ago, and be reminded that throughout this journey of faith we have a Savior who will lead us to our eternal home.

Everlasting

Dave Williamson.

Quality never goes out of style. Although worship music has changed in many ways over the last 20 years, what hasn't changed is the need for inspiring melodies and worshipful lyrics that touch the heart. Everlasting brings together 10 powerful songs of praise that are remembered by many and new to others. Veteran arranger Dave Williamson has set these timeless songs in a contemporary style for today, resulting in a Kingdom-building book that allows these songs once again to usher singers and worshippers alike to the Throne of God.

Hallelu! He Lives!

Ruth Elaine Schram.

This highly accessible mini-musical for two-part children's choir tells the story of Jesus' final week from Palm Sunday through Easter. Weaving traditional melodies with original melodic material, and providing charming narration in verse form, Ruth Elaine Schram has created a lovely work well suited to children's abilities, yet rich in meaning for all who hear. Parts for flute, two clarinets, cello, handbells, piano, and percussion are available in addition to the split track accompaniment CD.

Never Thirst Again The Promise of Easter

Deborah Craig-Claar, Allan Douglas & Phillip Keveren.

In this passionate work, the life-changing story of Jesus' death and resurrection is told from the unique perspective of the Samaritan woman at the well as she is transformed by the sacrificial love of Christ. Two actresses portray the woman called Anna, an older woman who looks back at the Passion events from a post-resurrection perspective, and her younger counterpart who encounters Jesus at the well and joins His followers in Jerusalem during Passion Week. The extraordinary score includes songs written or made popular by today's most accomplished artists, including Michael W. Smith, Keith Getty, Stuart Townend, Matt Maher, and Natalie Grant. Phillip Keveren's breathtaking chamber ensemble instrumentation creates an intimate and compelling experience. At only 40 minutes in length, and with only two female characters, one male character, and optional sets, lights and costumes, Never Thirst Again can be presented by churches of any size or production capability.

Prayers At The Cross

Lee Dengler.

This is truly a unique offering for Holy Week, Lent, or even general use! Employing poignant narrative and lush choral writing, the work focuses on the three prayers Jesus uttered while on the cross, transforming them into prayers we also may pray: a prayer for forgiveness, a prayer for God's presence when we are alone, and a prayer of commitment of our lives to God. Supported by optional parts for violin and cello (included), Prayers at the Cross is sure to be a powerful addition to any worship setting!

Song Of The Lamb An Easter Invitation

Marty Parks.

"Song of the Lamb" extends an invitation to join a journey; it's a journey from despair to hope and from death to life, and it all begins with a Lamb. Veteran arranger Marty Parks weaves classic hymns, modern worship songs and inspirational favorites into a 39 minute work of timeless beauty. Featuring accessible vocal and piano parts and two solos, this offering from Simply Word is ideal for groups with limited rehearsal time. Churches may choose between a poignant, Scripture based narration or an optional dramatic script, making "Song of the Lamb" flexible enough to meet a wide variety of performance and worship needs for the Easter season and beyond. The invitation still stands: Come join the journey, and help deliver eternity's message to your church and congregation this Easter.

Happily Forever After

A Musical for Kids about the Kingdom of God

Cyndi Nine, Rob Howard & David Guthrie.

Knights! Castles! Princesses! Dragons! Just an excuse to brandish swords and wear tiaras? No, it is one of the most captivating and gospel-rich musicals you've ever seen! Join Princess Pride, Sir Brags-a-lot, and their curious band on an amazing trek in a very faraway land. When the Carpenter from another kingdom brings the troubling news that their castle is actually built on sand and will not withstand the coming storm, they hesitantly choose to follow him as he has promised to show them a "better Kingdom." Assuring them that he'll take them all the way, and will "never leave them," they encounter troubles, temptations, and some very funny characters along the way. When their narrow path to "The Shining Kingdom" seems hopelessly blocked by the Dragon Doom, the Carpenter steps forward to fight the dragon on their behalf. His final vow to them is that "even if you hear that I have died slaying the dragon, don't fear - my Father has promised I'll be victorious, and see you safely home."

Jonah's Druthers

A Whale of a Tale from the Good Book

Cyndi Nine, Rob Howard, David Guthrie.

Jonah, the prophet of Israel sends and receives telegraphs to and from the Living God on behalf of the people, and all is fine, until the Lord tells him to go to that "dirty, rotten, flea-bitten foreign city called Ninevah" and preach against it! So, wouldn't ya' know it, instead of boardin' the east-bound train to Ninevah, Jonah hops a west-bound stage to Tarshish! When a big storm comes up on the prairie, threatening to blow the stage over, the driver rolls the dice and up comes Jonah's number as the one who must be angering "the gods." Jonah confesses that he is running the opposite direction from what Jehovah instructed him, and he is thrown off the stage and lands in a...well (say it with yer best cowboy twang!). No, not a whale...an old, abandoned well, where he languishes for 3 days and 3 nights. And...you know what happens from there!

The Song Everlasting

Joseph M. Martin.

The life of Christ is dramatically presented in this choral cantata that tells the gospel story using American folk songs and hymns. Filled with time-honored tunes and texts, this masterfully arranged work will connect with the congregation and choir alike. Divided into 3 sections: Ministry, Humility and Victory, this cantata can be done progressively throughout Lent, Holy Week and Eastertide, or it can be performed as one large celebration of the life of Christ. The miracle and blessing of Christ's earthly ministry, the humility of His passion and the victory of His resurrection fill this work with emotion and power. Thoughtful narration and spectacular orchestrations crown the cantata with variety and skill. Optional moments for congregational participation are included to incorporate your community of faith.

Blessings

Laura Story/arr. Sorenson.

Contemporary artist Laura Story asks the questions: "What if your blessings come through raindrops? What if your healing comes through tears?" Her modern ballad has touched the hearts of millions and is quickly becoming an anthem of hope and assurance for people of faith. This new arrangement by Heather Sorenson is not to be missed. She has carefully kept the heart of this inspirational song close while adding graceful touches for SATB choir. It is a true lesson about God's blessings in disguise.

Grace

from Alfred Music

Canticle For Easter—arr. David E. Williams. Quoting from two Classical masters (Haydn and Mozart) this buoyant anthem is itself a masterful fusion of timeless melodies and foundational hymn. Haydn’s hymntune Austria and Mozart’s Alleluia from “Exultate Jubilate” are joined with the Easter hymn Christ is Risen, Alleluia! Hearts to heaven and voices raise. With additional brass and congregation, this promises to provide a time of exuberant worship on Resurrection Sunday!
